STATEMENT OF FACTS

in support of a complaint under

28 U.S.C. §372(c)(1)

submitted on

August 11, 2003,

to

The Clerk of Court

of the

Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit*

concerning

The Hon. John C. Ninfo, II, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge

and

other court officers

at the U.S. Bankruptcy Court and the U.S. District Court for the Western District of New York

1. The Hon. John C. Ninfo, II, United States Bankruptcy Judge at the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of New York. (hereinafter referred to as the court or this court), has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the court. Moreover, he and other court officers at both the U.S. Bankruptcy Court and the U.S. District Court for the same district have participated in a series of events of disregard of facts, rules, and law so consistently injurious to Dr. Richard Cordero as to form a pattern of noncoincidental, intentional, and coordinated wrongful activity from which a reasonable person can infer their bias and prejudice against Dr. Cordero. The latter is the only pro se defendant and non-local –he lives in New York City, hundreds of miles away from the court and the other parties in Rochester- in adversary proceeding In re Premier Van Lines, Inc., docket no. 02-2230.

2. Systematically the court has aligned itself with the interests of parties to Premier adverse to Dr. Cordero. Sua sponte it has become their advocate, whether they were absent from the court because in default, as in Debtor David Palmer’s case, or they were in court and very much capable of defending their interests themselves, as in the cases of Trustee Kenneth Gordon, Plaintiff James Pfuntner, and his attorney, David MacKnight, Esq.

3. By taking no action against them, the court has mismanaged this adversary proceeding so that 11 months after its filing in September 2002, it has failed to move it along the procedural stages provided for by the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (F.R.Bkr.P.) and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (F.R.Civ.P.). Far from having set a trial date, it has not even scheduled discovery, but instead has announced a series of monthly hearings that will stretch out for 9 to 10 months beginning with the “discrete hearing” set for next October. There is no legal justification for the court to have followed this course of inaction and to devise such a plan for future inefficient activity leading nowhere except to causing further waste of time, effort, and money and inflicting tremendous amount of aggravation on Dr. Cordero, the party that has challenged the court on appeal. So what has motivated the court? Have it and other court officers proceeded in an intentional and coordinated way to inflict on Dr. Cordero the waste and aggravation that they already have?

I. Issues presented

- a) Whether the court's conduct has been prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of court business; and
 - b) Whether its conduct forms part of a pattern of intentional and coordinated conduct engaged in by both the Judge and other court officers to achieve an unlawful objective for their benefit and that of third parties and to the detriment of non-local pro se party Dr. Cordero.
4. The evidence that justifies this query is set forth in detail below. The facts are stated chronologically in connection with each of three parties followed by the presentation of the latest statements of the court. Its July 15 order is found at page 55 below. Also, this Statement makes reference to its documentary evidence in the form of items on the record. To facilitate their consultation so as to expedite the review and determination of this complaint, those items and most of the record are collected in a separate appendix. Reference here to an item there bears the form (A-#), where # is the page number. The appendix contains a comprehensive table of contents. Its Part A is organized chronologically and its Part B chronologically around certain parties, as is this Statement.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. Issues presented	3
II. Statement of facts illustrating a pattern of non-coincidental, intentional, and coordinated acts of the court and other court officers from which a reasonable person can infer their bias and prejudice against Dr. Cordero	9
A. The court has tolerated Trustee Gordon’s submission to it of false statements as well as defamatory statements about Dr. Cordero.....	9
1. The court dismissed Dr. Cordero’s counterclaims against the Trustee before any discovery, which would have shown how it tolerated the Trustee’s negligent and reckless liquidation of the Debtor for a year, and disregarded the legal standards applicable to a 12(b)(6) motion	11
2. The court excused Trustee Gordon’s defamatory and false statements as merely “part of the Trustee just trying to resolve these issues”, thereby condoning the Trustee’s use of falsehood and showing gross indifference to its injurious effect on Dr. Cordero.....	12
3. The court disregarded the Trustee’s admission that Dr. Cordero’s motion to extend time to file notice of appeal had been timely filed and, surprisingly finding that it had been untimely filed, denied it	13
4. The court reporter tried to avoid submitting the transcript and submitted it only over two and half months later and only after Dr. Cordero repeatedly requested it.....	14
B. The bankruptcy and the district courts denied Dr. Cordero’s application for default judgment although for a sum certain by disregarding the plain language of applicable legal provisions as well as critical facts.....17

1. The Bankruptcy Clerk of Court and the Case Administrator disregarded their obligations in the handling of the default application.....18
2. The court disregarded the available evidence in order to prejudge a happy ending to Dr. Cordero’s property search..... 20
3. The court prejudged issues of liability, before any discovery or discussion of the applicable legal standards, to further protect Mr. Palmer at the expense of Dr. Cordero 21
4. The court alleged in its Recommendation that it had suggested to Dr. Cordero to delay the application, but that is a pretense factually incorrect and utterly implausible 22

C. The district court repeatedly disregarded the outcome-determinative fact that the application was for a sum certain23

1. The district court disregarded Rule 55 to impose on Dr. Cordero the obligation to prove damages at an “inquest” and dispensed with sound judgment by characterizing the bankruptcy court as the “proper forum” to conduct it despite its prejudgment and bias 25
2. The bankruptcy court asked Dr. Cordero to resubmit the default judgment application only to deny the same application again by alleging that Dr. Cordero had not proved how he had arrived at the amount claimed or that he had served Mr. Palmer properly, issues that it knew about for six or more months 26

3. The court intentionally misled Dr. Cordero into thinking that it had in good faith asked him to resubmit with the intent to grant the application	28
D. The bankruptcy court has allowed Mr. Pfuntner and Mr. MacKnight to violate two discovery orders and submit disingenuous and false statements while charging Dr. Cordero with burdensome obligations	29
1. After the court issued the first order and Dr. Cordero complied with it to his detriment, it allowed Mr. Pfuntner and Mr. MacKnight to ignore it for months	29
2. When Mr. Pfuntner needed the inspection, Mr. MacKnight approached ex part the court, which changed the terms of the first order	30
3. The court required that Dr. Cordero travel to Rochester to discuss measures on how to travel to Rochester	30
4. The court showed no concern for the disingenuous motion that Mr. MacKnight submitted to it and that Dr. Cordero complained about in detail, whereby the court failed to safeguard the integrity of judicial proceedings	31
5. The court issued at Mr. Pfuntner’s instigation its second order imposing on Dr. Cordero an onerous obligation that it never imposed on any of the other parties and then allowed Mr. Pfuntner and Mr. MacKnight to flagrantly disobey it as they did the first one	33
6. The court asked Dr. Cordero to submit a motion for sanctions and compensation only to deny granting it even without Mr. Pfuntner and Mr. MacKnight responding or otherwise objecting to it.....	34
7. The court’s trivial grounds for denying the motion showed that it did not in good faith ask Dr. Cordero to submit it, for it never intended to grant it.....	36

E. The court has decided after 11 months of having failed to comply with even the basic case management requirements, that starting on the 13th month it will build up a record over the next nine to ten months during which it will maximize the transactional cost for Dr. Cordero, who at the end of it all will lose anyway37

1. The court will in fact begin in October, not with the trial, but with its series of hearings, or rather “discrete hearings”, whatever those are..... 39
2. The court is so determined to make Dr. Cordero lose that at a hearing it stated that it will require him to prove beyond a reasonable doubt the evidence in support of his motions..... 41
3. The court latched on to Mr. MacKnight’s allegation that he might not have understood Dr. Cordero and that it might be due to his appearances by phone so as to justify its denial of further phone appearances that it nevertheless continues to allow in other cases 42
4. The court blames Dr. Cordero for being required now to travel to Rochester monthly because he chose to sue and to do so in federal rather than state court, whereby the court disregards the law and the facts and penalizes Dr. Cordero for exercising his rights 44
5. The court already discounted one of Dr. Cordero’s claim against one party and ignores his other claims against the other parties 45
6. The court gave short notice to Dr. Cordero that he had to appear in person, the cost to him notwithstanding, to argue his motion for sanctions for the submission to it of false representations by Mr. MacKnight -who had not bothered even to file a response-, thus causing Dr. Cordero to withdraw the motion 47

F. Bankruptcy and district court officers to whom Dr. Cordero sent originals of his Redesignation of Items on the Record and Statement of Issues on Appeal neither docketed nor forwarded this paper to the Court of Appeals, thereby creating the risk of the appeal being thrown out for non-compliance with an appeal requirement49

1. Court officers also failed to docket or forward the March 27 orders, which are the main ones appealed from, thus putting at risk the determination of timeliness of Dr. Cordero’s appeal to the Court of Appeals..... 52

III. Relief requested 54

II. Statement of facts illustrating a pattern of non-coincidental, intentional, and coordinated acts of the court and other court officers from which a reasonable person can infer their bias and prejudice against Dr. Cordero

A. The court has tolerated Trustee Gordon's submission to it of false statements as well as defamatory statements about Dr. Cordero

5. Dr. Cordero, who resides in New York City, entrusted his household and professional property, valuable in itself and cherished to him, to a Rochester, NY, moving and storage company in August 1993. From then on he paid storage and insurance fees. In early January 2002 he contacted Mr. David Palmer, the owner of the company storing his property, Premier Van Lines, to inquire about his property. Mr. Palmer and his attorney, Raymond Stilwell, Esq., assured him that it was safe and in his warehouse at Jefferson-Henrietta, in Rochester (A-18). Only months later, after Mr. Palmer disappeared, did his assurances reveal themselves as lies, for not only had his company gone bankrupt –Debtor Premier-, but it was already in liquidation. Moreover, Dr. Cordero's property was not found in that warehouse and its whereabouts were unknown.

6. In search of his property in storage with Premier, Dr. Cordero was referred to Kenneth Gordon, Esq., the trustee appointed for its liquidation. The Trustee had failed to give Dr. Cordero notice of the liquidation although the storage contract was an income-producing asset of the Debtor. Worse still, the Trustee did not provide Dr. Cordero with any information about his property and merely bounced him back to the same parties that had referred Dr. Cordero to him (A-16, 17).

7. Eventually Dr. Cordero found out from third parties (A-48, 49;109, ftnts-5-8; 352) that Mr. Palmer had left Dr. Cordero's property at a warehouse in Avon, NY, owned by Mr. James Pfuntner. However, the latter refused to release his property lest Trustee Gordon sue him and he too referred Dr. Cordero to the Trustee. This time not only did the Trustee fail to provide any information or assistance in retrieving his property, but in a letter of September 23, 2002, improper in its tone and unjustified in its content, he also enjoined Dr. Cordero not to contact him or his office anymore (A-1).
8. Dr. Cordero applied to this court, to which the Premier case had been assigned, for a review of the Trustee's performance and fitness to serve (A-7).
9. In an attempt to dissuade the court from undertaking that review, Trustee Gordon submitted to it false statements as well as statements disparaging of the character and competence of Dr. Cordero. The latter brought this matter to the court's attention (A-32, 41). However, the court did not even try to ascertain whether the Trustee had made such false representations in violation of Rule 9011(b)(3) F.R.Bkr.P.. Instead, it satisfied itself with just passing Dr. Cordero's application to the Trustee's supervisor, an assistant U.S. Trustee (A-29), who was not even requested and who had no obligation to report back to the court.

10. By so doing, the court failed in its duty to ensure respect for the conduct of business before it by an officer of the court and a federal appointee, such as Trustee Gordon, and to maintain the integrity and fairness of proceedings for the protection of injured parties, such as Dr. Cordero. The court's handling of Dr. Cordero's application to review Trustee Gordon's performance, even before they had become parties to this adversary proceeding, would turn out to be its first of a long series of manifestations of bias and prejudice in favor of Trustee Gordon and other parties and against Dr. Cordero.

1. The court dismissed Dr. Cordero's counterclaims against the Trustee before any discovery, which would have shown how it tolerated the Trustee's negligent and reckless liquidation of the Debtor for a year, and disregarded the legal standards applicable to a 12(b)(6) motion

11. In October 2002, Mr. Pfuntner served the papers for this adversary proceeding on several defendants, including Trustee Gordon and Dr. Cordero.

12. Dr. Cordero, appearing pro se, cross-claimed against the Trustee (A-70, 83, 88), who moved to dismiss (A-135). Before discovery had even begun or any initial disclosure had been provided by the other parties –only Dr. Cordero had disclosed numerous documents with his pleadings (A-11, 45, 62, 90, 123, 414)- and before any conference of parties or pre-trial conference under Rules 26(f) and 16

F.R.Civ.P., respectively, had taken place, the court summarily dismissed the cross-claims at the hearing on December 18, 2002. To do so, it disregarded the genuine issues of material fact at stake as well as the other standards applicable to motions under Rule 12(b)(6) F.R.Civ.P., both of which Dr. Cordero had brought to its attention (A-143).

2. The court excused Trustee Gordon's defamatory and false statements as merely "part of the Trustee just trying to resolve these issues", thereby condoning the Trustee's use of falsehood and showing gross indifference to its injurious effect on Dr. Cordero

13. At the December 18 hearing, the court excused the Trustee in open court when it stated that:

I'm going to grant the Trustee's motion and I'm going to dismiss your cross claims. First of all, with respect to the defamation, quite frankly, these are the kind of things that happen all the time, Dr. Cordero, in Bankruptcy court...it's all part of the Trustee just trying to resolve these issues. (Transcript, pp.10-11; A-274-275)

14. Thereby the court approved of the use of defamation and falsehood by an officer of the court trying to avoid review of his performance. By thus sparing Trustee Gordon's reputation as trustee at the expense of Dr. Cordero's, the court justified any reasonable observer in questioning its impartiality. Moreover, by blatantly showing its lack of ethical qualms about such conduct, the court also laid the foundation for the question whether it had likewise approved the Trustee's negligent and reckless liquidation of Premier, which would have been exposed by allowing discovery. In the same vein, the court's approval of falsehood as a means 'to resolve issues' warrants the question of what means it would allow court officers to use to resolve matters at issue, such as its own reputation.

3. The court disregarded the Trustee's admission that Dr. Cordero's motion to extend time to file notice of appeal had been timely filed and, surprisingly finding that it had been untimely filed, denied it

15. The order dismissing Dr. Cordero's crossclaims was entered on December 30, 2002, and mailed from Rochester (A-151). Upon its arrival in New York City after the New Year's holiday, Dr. Cordero timely mailed the notice of appeal on Thursday, January 9, 2003 (A-153). It was filed in the bankruptcy court the following Monday, January 13. The Trustee moved in district court to dismiss it as untimely filed; (A-156).

16. Dr. Cordero timely mailed a motion to extend time to file the notice under Rule 8002(c)(2) F.R.Bkr.P. Although Trustee Gordon himself acknowledged on page 2 of his brief in apposition that the motion had been timely filed on January 29 (A-235), the court surprisingly found that it had been untimely filed on January 30!

17. Trustee Gordon checked the filing date of the motion to extend just as he had checked that of the notice of appeal: to escape accountability through a timely-mailed/untimely-filed technical gap. He would hardly have made a mistake on such a critical matter. Nevertheless, the court disregarded the factual discrepancy without even so much as wondering how it could have come about, let alone ordering an investigation into whether somebody and, if so, who, had changed the filing date and on whose order. The foundation for this query is provided by evidence of how court officers mishandled docket entries and the record for Dr. Cordero's cases (paras. 31 and 97 below). Instead, the court rushed to deny the motion to extend, which could have led to the review of its erroneous and wrongful dismissal of Dr. Cordero's cross-claims.

4. The court reporter tried to avoid submitting the transcript and submitted it only over two and half months later and only after Dr. Cordero repeatedly requested it

18. To appeal from the court's dismissal of his cross-claims, Dr. Cordero contacted Court Reporter Mary Dianetti on January 8, 2003, to request the transcript of the December 18 hearing. After checking her notes, she called back and told Dr. Cordero that there could be some 27 pages and take 10 days to be ready. Dr. Cordero agreed and requested the transcript (A-261).

19. It was March 10 when Court Reporter Dianetti finally picked up the phone and answered a call from Dr. Cordero asking for the transcript. After telling an untenable excuse, she said that she would have the 15 pages ready for... "You said that it would be around 27?!", exclaimed Dr. Cordero. She told another implausible excuse after which she promised to have everything in two days ‘and you want it from the moment you came in on the phone.’ What an extraordinary comment! She implied that there had been an exchange between the court and Trustee Gordon before Dr. Cordero had been put on speakerphone and she was not supposed to include it in the transcript (A-283, 286).

20. There is further evidence supporting the implication of Reporter Dianetti’s comment and giving rise to the concern that at hearings and meetings where Dr. Cordero is a participant the court engages in exchanges with parties in Dr. Cordero’s absence. Thus, on many occasions the court has cut off abruptly the phone communication with Dr. Cordero, in contravention of the norms of civility and of its duty to afford all parties the same opportunity to be heard and hear it.

21. It is most unlikely that without announcing that the hearing or meeting was adjourned or striking its gavel, but simply by just pressing the speakerphone button to hang up unceremoniously on Dr. Cordero, the court brought thereby the hearing or meeting to its conclusion and the parties in the room just turned on their heels and left. What is not only likely but in fact certain is that by so doing, the court, whether by design or in effect, prevented Dr. Cordero from bringing up any further subjects, even subjects that he had explicitly stated earlier in the hearing that he wanted to discuss; and denied him the opportunity to raise objections for the record. Would the court have given by such conduct to any reasonable person at the opposite end of the phone line cause for offense and the appearance of partiality and unfairness?

22. The confirmation that Reporter Dianetti was not acting on her own in avoiding the submission of the transcript was provided by the fact that the transcript was not sent on March 12, the date on her certificate. Indeed, it was filed two weeks later on March 26 (A-453, entry 71), a significant date, namely, that of the hearing of one of Dr. Cordero's motions concerning Trustee Gordon (A-246; 452, entries 60, 70). Somebody wanted to know what Dr. Cordero had to say before allowing the transcript to be sent to him. Thus, the transcript reached him only on March 28.

23. The Court Reporter never explained why she failed to comply with her obligations under either 28 U.S.C. §753(b) on "promptly" delivering the transcript "to the party or judge" –was she even the one who sent it to the party?- or Rule 8007(a) F.R.Bkr.P. on asking for an extension.

24. Reporter Dianetti also claims that because Dr. Cordero was on speakerphone, she had difficulty understanding what he said. As a result, the transcription of his speech has many "unintelligible" notations and passages so that it is difficult to make out what he said. If she or the court speakerphone regularly garbled what the person on speakerphone said, it is hard to imagine that either would last long in use. But no imagination is needed, only an objective assessment of the facts and the applicable legal provisions, to ask whether the Reporter was told to disregard Dr. Cordero's request for the transcript; and when she could no longer do so, to garble his speech and submit her transcript to a higher-up court officer to be vetted before mailing a final version to Dr. Cordero. When a court officer or officers so handle a transcript, which is a critical paper for a party to ask on appeal for review of a court's decision, an objective observer can reasonably question in what other wrongful conduct that denies a party's right to fair and impartial proceedings they would engage to protect themselves.

B. The bankruptcy and the district courts denied Dr. Cordero's application for default judgment although for a sum certain by disregarding the plain language of applicable legal provisions as well as critical facts

25. Dr. Cordero joined as third party defendant Mr. Palmer, who lied to him about his property's safety and whereabouts while taking in his storage and insurance fees for years. Mr. Palmer, as president of the Debtor (A-433, entries 13, 12), was already under the bankruptcy court's jurisdiction. Nonetheless, he failed to answer Dr. Cordero's summons and complaint (A-70). Hence, Dr. Cordero timely applied under Rule 55 F.R.Civ.P. for default judgment for a sum certain (A-290, 294) on December 26, 2002. But nothing happened for over a month during which Dr. Cordero had no oral or written response from the court to his application.

26. Dr. Cordero called to find out. He was informed by Case Administrator Karen Tacy that the court had withheld his application until the inspection of his property in storage because it was premature to speak of damages. Dr. Cordero indicated that he was not asking for damages, but rather for default judgment as a result of Mr. Palmer's failure to appear. Ms. Tacy said that Dr. Cordero could write to the court if he wanted.

27. Dr. Cordero wrote to the court on January 30, 2003, to request that the court either grant his application or explain its denial (A-302).

28. Only on February 4, did the court take action, or Clerk of Court Paul Warren, or Clerk Tacy, for that matter. In addition, when Dr. Cordero received a copy of the papers file by the court, what he read was astonishing!

1. The Bankruptcy Clerk of Court and the Case Administrator disregarded their obligations in the handling of the default application

29. Clerk Paul Warren had an unconditional obligation under Rule 55 F.R.Civ.P.: “the clerk shall enter the party’s default,” (emphasis added) upon receiving Dr. Cordero’s application of December 26, 2002 (A-290). Yet, it was only on February 4, 41 days later and only at Dr. Cordero’s instigation (A-303), that the clerk entered default, that is, certified a fact that was such when he received the application, namely, that Mr. Palmer had been served but had failed to answer. The Clerk lacked any legal justification for his delay. He had to certify the fact of default to the court so that the latter could take further action on the application. It was certainly not for the Clerk to wait until the court took action.

30. It is not by coincidence that Clerk Warren entered default on February 4, the date on the bankruptcy court's Recommendation to the district court (A-306). Thereby the Recommendation appeared to have been made as soon as default had been entered. It also gave the appearance that Clerk Warren was taking orders in disregard of his duty.

31. Likewise, his deputy, Case Administrator Karen Tacy (kt), failed to enter on the docket (EOD) Dr. Cordero's application upon receiving it. Where did she keep it until entering it out of sequence on "EOD 02/04/03" (A-450 et seq., docket entries 51, 46, 49, 50, 52, 53)? Until then, the docket gave no legal notice to the world that Dr. Cordero had applied for default judgment against Mr. Palmer. Does the docket, with its arbitrary entry placement, numbering, and untimeliness, give the appearance of manipulation or rather the evidence of it?

32. It is highly unlikely that Clerk Warren, Case Administrator Tacy, and Court Reporter Dianetti were acting on their own. Who coordinated their acts in detriment of Dr. Cordero and for what benefit?

2. The court disregarded the available evidence in order to prejudge a happy ending to Dr. Cordero's property search

33. In its Recommendation to the district court, the bankruptcy court characterized the default judgment application as premature because it boldly forecast that:

6. ...within the next month the Avon Containers will be opened in the presence of Cordero, at which point it may be determined that Cordero has incurred no loss or damages, because all of the Cordero Property is accounted for and in the same condition as when delivered for storage in 1993. (A-306)

34. The court wrote that on February 4, but the inspection did not take place until more than 3 three months later on May 19; it was not even possible to open all containers; the failure to enable the opening of another container led to the assumption that other property had been lost; and the single container that was opened showed that property had been damaged; (paras. 62 below et seq.).

35. What a totally wrong forecast! Why would the court cast aside all judicial restraint to make it? Because it was in fact a biased prejudgment. It sprang from the court's need to find a pretext to deny the application. Such denial was pushed through by the court disregarding the provisions of Rule 55, which squarely supported the application since it was for judgment for Mr. Palmer's default, not for damage to Dr. Cordero's property; Mr. Palmer had been found in default by Clerk of Court Warren (A-303); and it requested a sum certain. .

36. What is more, for its biased prejudgment, the court not only totally lacked evidentiary support, but it also disregarded contradicting evidence available. Indeed, the storage containers with Dr. Cordero's property were said to have been left behind by Mr. Palmer in the warehouse of Mr. Pfuntner. The latter had written in his complaint that property had been removed from his warehouse premises without his authorization and at night (A-24). Moreover, the warehouse had been closed down and remained out of business for about a year. Nobody was there paying to control temperature, humidity, pests, or thieves. Thus, Dr. Cordero's property could also have been stolen or damaged.

37. Forming an opinion without sufficient knowledge or examination, let alone disregarding the only evidence available, is called prejudice. From a court that forms anticipatory judgments, a reasonable person would not expect to receive fair and impartial treatment, much less a fair trial because at trial the prejudiced court could abuse its authority to show that its prejudgments were right.

3. The court prejudged issues of liability, before any discovery or discussion of the applicable legal standards, to further protect Mr. Palmer at the expense of Dr. Cordero

38. In the same vein, the court cast doubt on the recoverability of "moving, storage, and insurance fees...especially since a portion of [those] fees were [sic] paid prior to when Premier became responsible for the storage of the Cordero Property"; (A-307). On what evidence did the court make up its mind on the issue of responsibility, which is at the heart of the liability of other parties to Dr. Cordero? The court has never requested disclosure of, not to mention scheduled discovery or held an evidentiary hearing on, the storage contract, or the terms of succession or acquisition between storage companies, or storage industry practices, or regulatory requirements on that industry.

39. Such a leaning of the mind before considering pertinent evidence is called bias. From such a biased court, a reasonable person would not expect impartiality toward a litigant such as Dr. Cordero, who as pro se may be deemed the weakest among the parties; as the only non-local, and that for hundreds of miles, may be considered expendable; and to top it off has challenged the court on appeal.

4. The court alleged in its Recommendation that it had suggested to Dr. Cordero to delay the application, but that is a pretense factually incorrect and utterly implausible

40. The court also protected itself by excusing any delay in making its recommendation to the district court. So it stated in its Recommendation that:

10. The Bankruptcy Court suggested to Cordero that the Default Judgment be held until after the opening of the Avon Containers... (A-307)

41. However, that suggestion was never made. Moreover, Dr. Cordero would have had absolutely no motive to accept it if ever made: Under Rule 55 an application for default judgment for a sum certain against a defaulted defendant is not dependent on proving damages. It is based on the defendant's failure to heed the stark warning in the summons (A-21) that if he fails to respond, he will be deemed to consent to entry of judgment against him for the relief demanded. Why would a reasonable person, such as Dr. Cordero, ever put at risk his acquired right to default judgment in exchange for aleatory damages that could not legally be higher than the sum certain of the judgment applied for? What fairness would a disinterested observer fully informed of the facts underlying this case expect from a court that to excuse its errors puts out such kind of untenable pretense?

C. The district court repeatedly disregarded the outcome-determinative fact that the application was for a sum certain

42. The district court, the Hon. David G. Larimer presiding, accepted the bankruptcy court's Recommendation and in its order of March 11, 2003, denied entry of default judgment. Its stated ground therefor was that:

[Dr. Cordero] must still establish his entitlement to damages since the matter does not involve a sum certain [so that] it may be necessary for [sic] an inquest concerning damages before judgment is appropriate...the Bankruptcy Court is the proper forum for conducting [that] inquest. (emphasis added; A-339)

43. What an astonishing statement!, for in order to make it, the district court had to disregard five papers stating that the application for default judgment did involve a sum certain:

- 1) Dr. Cordero's Affidavit of Amount Due; (A-294);
- 2) the Order to Transmit Record and Recommendation; (A-295);
- 3) the Attachment to the Recommendation; (A-305);
- 4) Dr. Cordero's March 2 motion to enter default judgment; (A-314, 327) and
- 5) Dr. Cordero's March 19 motion for rehearing re implied denial of the earlier motion (A-342, 344-para.6).

44. The district court made it easy for itself to disregard Dr. Cordero's statement of sum certain, for it utterly disregarded his two motions that argued that point, among others.

45. After the district court denied without discussion and, thus, by implication, the first motion of March 2 (A-314), Dr. Cordero moved that court for a rehearing (A-342) so that it would correct its outcome-determinative error since the matter did involve a sum certain. However, the district court did not discuss that point or any other at all. Thereby it failed to make any effort to be seen if only undoing its previous injustice, or at least to show a sense of institutional obligation of reciprocity toward the requester of justice, a quid pro quo for his good faith effort and investment of countless hours researching, writing, and revising his motions. It curtly denied the motion "in all respects" period! (A-350).

46. Also with no discussion, the district court disregarded Dr. Cordero's contention that when Mr. Palmer failed to appear and Dr. Cordero applied for default judgment for a sum certain his entitlement to it became perfect pursuant to the plain language of Rule 55.

47. By making such a critical mistake of fact and choosing to proceed so expediently, the district court gave rise to the reasonable inference that it did not even read Dr. Cordero's motions, thereby denying him the opportunity to be heard, particularly since there was no oral argument. Instead, it satisfied itself with just one party's statements, namely the bankruptcy court's Recommendation. If so, it ruled on the basis of what amounted to the ex parte approach of the bankruptcy court located downstairs in the same building. It merely rubberstamped the bankruptcy court's conclusion...after mistranscribing its content, a quick job that did justice to nobody. Would such conduct give to an objective observer the appearance of unfairness toward Dr. Cordero and partiality in favor of the colleague court?

1. The district court disregarded Rule 55 to impose on Dr. Cordero the obligation to prove damages at an "inquest" and dispensed with sound judgment by characterizing the bankruptcy court as the "proper forum" to conduct it despite its prejudgment and bias

48. The equities of this case show that Mr. Palmer had such dirty hands that he did not even dare come to court to answer Dr. Cordero's complaint. Yet, both courts spared him the consequences of his default and instead weighed down Dr. Cordero's shoulders with the contrary-to-law burden of proving damages at an inquest. The latter necessarily would have to be conducted by the bankruptcy court playing the roles of the missing defendant, its expert witness, the jury, and the judge. For a court to conduct an inquest under such circumstances would offend our adversarial system of justice, and all the more so because this court has demonstrated to have already prejudged the issues at stake and its outcome. Would an objective observer reasonably expect the bankruptcy court to conduct a fair and impartial inquest or the district court to review with any degree of care its findings and conclusions?

2. The bankruptcy court asked Dr. Cordero to resubmit the default judgment application only to deny the same application again by alleging that Dr. Cordero had not proved how he had arrived at the amount claimed or that he had served Mr. Palmer properly, issues that it knew about for six or more months

49. Pursuant to court order, Dr. Cordero flew to Rochester on May 19 and inspected the storage containers said to hold his stored property at Mr. Pfuntner's warehouse in Avon. At a hearing on May 21, he reported on the damage to and loss of property of his. Thereupon, the court sua sponte asked Dr. Cordero to resubmit his application for default judgment against Mr. Palmer. Dr. Cordero resubmitted the same application and noticed it for June 25 (A-472, 483).

50. At that hearing, the court surprised Dr. Cordero and how! The court alleged that it could not grant the application because Dr. Cordero had not proved how he had arrived at the sum claimed. Yet, that was the exact sum certain that he had claimed back on December 26, 2002! (A-294) So why did the court ask Dr. Cordero to resubmit the application if it was not prepared to grant it anyway? But this was not all.

51. At a hearing the following week, on July 2, Dr. Cordero brought up again his application for default judgment. The court not only repeated that Dr. Cordero would have to prove damages, but also stated that he had to prove that he had properly served Mr. Palmer because it was not convinced that service on the latter had been proper. What an astonishing requirement and how arbitrary!

52. Dr. Cordero served Mr. Palmer's attorney of record, David Stilwell, Esq.; the court has done likewise (A-449, entries 25, 29); Dr. Cordero certified service on him to Clerk of Court Warren (A-99) and the service was entered on "EOD 11/21/02" (A-448, between entries 13 and 14); Dr. Cordero served the application on both Mr. Palmer and Mr. Stilwell on December 26 (A-296). What is more, Clerk Warren defaulted Mr. Palmer on February 4, 2003, (A-479), thus certifying that Mr. Palmer was served but failed to respond. Hence, with no foundation whatsoever, the court cast doubt on the default entered by its own Clerk of Court.

53. Likewise, with no justification it disregarded Rule 60(b), which provides an avenue for a defaulted party to contest a default judgment. Instead of recommending the entry of such judgment under Rule 55 and allowing Mr. Palmer to invoke 60(b) to challenge service if he dare enter an appearance in court, the court volunteered as Mr. Palmer's advocate in absentia. In so doing, the court betrayed any pretense of impartiality. Would a reasonable person consider that for the court to protect precisely the clearly undeserving party, the one with dirty hands, it had to be motivated by bias and prejudice against Dr. Cordero or could it have been guided by some other interest?

3. The court intentionally misled Dr. Cordero into thinking that it had in good faith asked him to resubmit with the intent to grant the application

54. If the court entertained any doubts about the validity of the claim or proper service although it had had the opportunity to examine those issues for six and eight months, respectively, it lacked any justification for asking Dr. Cordero to resubmit the application? If its doubts had not been dispelled or allayed, why take the initiative to ask Dr. Cordero to resubmit, particularly without disclosing any remaining doubts and alerting him to the need to dispel them? By so doing, it must have known that it would raise in him reasonable expectations that it would grant the application. It could also foresee the reasonable consequences of springing on him untenable grounds for denial: It would inevitably disappoint those expectations and do so all the more acutely for having put him through unnecessary work. It follows that the court intentionally inflicted emotional distress on Dr. Cordero by taking him for a fool! Would a reasonable person trust this court at all, let alone trust it to be fair and impartial in subsequent judicial proceedings?

D. The bankruptcy court has allowed Mr. Pfuntner and Mr. MacKnight to violate two discovery orders and submit disingenuous and false statements while charging Dr. Cordero with burdensome obligations

1. After the court issued the first order and Dr. Cordero complied with it to his detriment, it allowed Mr. Pfuntner and Mr. MacKnight to ignore it for months

55. On December 10, 2002, Assistant U.S. Trustee Kathleen Dunivin Schmitt requested a status conference for January 8 (A-358). At the only meeting ever in this adversary proceeding, a pre-trial conference held on January 10, the court orally issued only one onerous order: Dr. Cordero must travel from NY City to Rochester and to Avon to inspect the storage containers that bear labels with his name at Plaintiff Pfuntner's warehouse. Dr. Cordero had to submit three dates therefor. The court stated that within two days of receiving them, it would inform him of the most convenient date for the other parties. Dr. Cordero submitted not three, but rather six stretching over a three week period by letter of January 29 to the court and the parties (A-365, 368). Nonetheless, the court neither answered it nor informed Dr. Cordero of the most convenient date.

56. Dr. Cordero asked why at a hearing on February 12, 2003. The court said that it was waiting to hear from Mr. Pfuntner's attorney, Mr. MacKnight, who had attended the pre-trial conference and agreed to the inspection. The court took no action and the six dates elapsed. But Dr. Cordero had to keep those six dates open on his calendar for no good at all and to his detriment.

2. When Mr. Pfuntner needed the inspection, Mr. MacKnight approached ex part the court, which changed the terms of the first order

57. However, the time came when Mr. Pfuntner wanted to get the inspection over with to clear his warehouse, sell it, and be in Florida worry-free to carry on his business there. Out of the blue he called Dr. Cordero on March 25 and proposed three consecutive dates in one week. When Dr. Cordero asked whether he had taken the necessary preparatory measures discussed in his January 29 letter, Mr. Pfuntner claimed not even to have seen the letter.

58. Thereupon, Mr. MacKnight contacted the court on March 25 or 26 ex parte –in violation of Rule 9003(a) F.R.Bkr.P. Reportedly the court stated that it would not be available for the inspection and that setting it up was a matter for Dr. Cordero and Mr. Pfuntner to agree mutually. (A-372)

3. The court required that Dr. Cordero travel to Rochester to discuss measures on how to travel to Rochester

59. Dr. Cordero raised a motion on April 3 to ascertain this change of the terms of the court's first order and insure that the necessary transportation and inspection measures were taken beforehand; (A-378). The court received the motion on April 7, and on that very same day, (A-454, entries 75 and 76) thus, without even waiting for a responsive brief from Mr. MacKnight, whose position it must already have known, the court wrote to Dr. Cordero denying his request to appear by phone at the hearing –as Dr. Cordero had on four previous occasions- and requiring that he travel to Rochester to attend a hearing in person to discuss measures to travel to Rochester; (A-386). That this was an illogical pretext is obvious and that it was arbitrary is shown by the fact that thereafter the court allowed Dr. Cordero to appear four more times by phone. Unable to travel to Rochester shortly after that surprising requirement, Dr. Cordero had to withdraw his motion; (A-394).

4. The court showed no concern for the disingenuous motion that Mr. MacKnight submitted to it and that Dr. Cordero complained about in detail, whereby the court failed to safeguard the integrity of judicial proceedings

60. Then Mr. MacKnight raised his own motion on April 10; (A-389). Therein he was so disingenuous that, for example, he pretended that Mr. Pfuntner had only sued in interpleader and should be declared not liable to any party, while concealing the fact that Trustee Gordon and the Bank had stated in writing, even before the case had started, that they laid no claim to any stored property (A-63, 66,) . So there were no conflicting claims and no basis for interpleader at all. Mr. MacKnight also pretended that Mr. Pfuntner had abstained from bringing that motion before “as an accommodation to the parties”, while holding back that it was Mr. Pfunter, as plaintiff, who had sued them to begin with even without knowing whether they had any property in his warehouse, but simply because their names were on labels affixed to storage containers (A-364)...some 'accommodation'! Mr. MacKnight also withheld the fact that now it suited Mr. Pfunter to drop the case and skip to sunny Florida, so that he was in reality maneuvering to strip the parties of their claims against him through the expedient of a summary judgment while leaving them holding the bag of thousands of dollars in legal fees and shouldering the burden of an enormous waste of time, effort, and tremendous aggravation. Dr. Cordero analyzed in detail for the court Mr. MacKnight's mendacity and lack of candor, to no avail; (A-400; cf. 379 et seq.).

61. Although the court has an obligation under Rule 56(g) to sanction a party proceeding in bad faith, it disregarded Mr. MacKnight's disingenuousness, just as it had shown no concern for Trustee Gordon's false statements submitted to it. How much commitment to fairness and impartiality would a reasonable person expect from a court that exhibits such 'anything goes' standard for the admission of dishonest statements? If that is what it allows outside officers of the court to get away with, what will it allow or ask in-house court officers to engage in?

5. The court issued at Mr. Pfunter's instigation its second order imposing on Dr. Cordero an onerous obligation that it never imposed on any of the other parties and then allowed Mr. Pfunter and Mr. MacKnight to flagrantly disobey it as they did the first one

62. Nor did the court impose on Mr. Pfunter or Mr. MacKnight any sanctions, as requested by Dr. Cordero, for having disobeyed the first discovery order. On the contrary, as Mr. Pfunter wanted, the court ordered Dr. Cordero to carry out the inspection within four weeks or it would order the containers bearing labels with his name removed at his expense from Mr. Pfunter's warehouse to any other anywhere in Ontario, that is, whether in another county or another country.

63. Pursuant to the second court order, Dr. Cordero went all the way to Rochester and on to Avon on May 19 to inspect at Mr. Pfunter's warehouse the containers said to hold his property. However, not only did both Mr. Pfunter and his warehouse manager fail even to attend, but they had also failed to take any of the necessary preparatory measures discussed since January 10 and which Mr. MacKnight had assured the court at the April 23 hearing had been or would be taken care of before the inspection.

64. At a hearing on May 21, Dr. Cordero reported to the court on Mr. Pfunter's and Mr. MacKnight's failures concerning the inspection and on the damage to and loss of property of his. Once more the court did not impose any sanctions on Mr.

Pfuntner or Mr. MacKnight for their disobedience of the second discovery order and merely preserved the status quo.

6. The court asked Dr. Cordero to submit a motion for sanctions and compensation only to deny granting it even without Mr. Pfuntner and Mr. MacKnight responding or otherwise objecting to it

65. But the court was not going to make it nearly that easy for Dr. Cordero. At that May 21 hearing Dr. Cordero asked for sanctions against and compensation from Mr. Pfuntner and Mr. MacKnight for having violated to his detriment both discovery orders. The court asked that he submit a written motion. Dr. Cordero noted that he had already done so. The court said that he should do so in a separate motion and that in asking him to do so the court was trying to help him.

66. Dr. Cordero wrote a motion on June 6 for sanctions and compensation under Rules 37 and 34 F.R.Civ.P., made applicable in adversary proceedings by Rules 7037 and 7034 F.R.Bkr.P., respectively, to be imposed on Mr. Pfuntner and Mr. MacKnight. It was not only a legal document that set out in detail the facts and the applicable legal standards, but also a professionally prepared statement of account with exhibits to demonstrate the massive effort and time that Dr. Cordero had to invest to comply with the two discovery orders and deal with the non-compliance of the other parties. To prove compensable work and its value, it contained an itemized list more than two pages long by way of a bill as well as a statement of rates and what is more, it provided more than 125 pages of documents to support the bill.

67. All in all the motion had more than 150 pages in which Dr. Cordero also argued why sanctions were warranted too: Neither Mr. Pfunter, Mr. MacKnight, nor the warehouse manager attended the inspection and none of the necessary preparatory measures were taken. Worse still, they engaged in a series of bad faith maneuvers to cause Dr. Cordero not to attend the inspection, in which case they would ask the court to find him to have disobeyed the order and to order his property removed at his expense from Mr. Pfunter's warehouse; and if Dr. Cordero nevertheless did attend, to make him responsible for the failure of the inspection, for the fact is that Mr. Pfunter never intended for the inspection to take place. It was all a sham!

68. Yet, Mr. Pfunter and Mr. MacKnight had nothing to worry about. So much so that they did not even care to submit a brief in opposition to Dr. Cordero's motion for sanctions and compensation. Mr. MacKnight did not even object to it at its hearing on June 25. The court did it for them at the outset, volunteering to advocate their interests just as it had advocated Mr. Palmer's to deny Dr. Cordero's application for default judgment.

7. The court's trivial grounds for denying the motion showed that it did not in good faith ask Dr. Cordero to submit it, for it never intended to grant it

69. The court refused to grant the motion. It alleged that Dr. Cordero had not presented the tickets for transportation –although they amount to less than 1% of the total- and that he had not proved that he could use Mr. MacKnight's hourly rate –even though that is the legally accepted lodestar method for calculating attorney's fees-. But these were just thinly veiled pretexts. The justification for that statement is that the court did not even impose any of the non-monetary sanctions. It simply was determined to protect Mr. Pfuntner and Mr. MacKnight from any form of punishment for having violated two of its own orders, its obligation to safeguard the integrity of the judicial process notwithstanding.

70. The court was equally determined to expose Dr. Cordero to any form of grief available. Thus, it denied the motion without giving any consideration to where the equities lay between complying and non-complying parties with respect to its orders; or to applying a balancing test to the moral imperative of compensating the complying party and the need to identify a just measuring rod for the protection of the non-complying parties required to compensate; or to the notion of substantial compliance when proving a bill for compensation; let alone the applicable legal standards for imposing sanctions. Even a court's intent can be inferred from its acts: Once more, this court had simply raised Dr. Cordero's expectations when requiring him to submit this motion because ‘I’m trying to help you here’, while it only intended to dash them after putting him through a tremendous amount of extra work. The court intentionally inflicted emotional distress on Dr. Cordero since it again took him for a fool! Is this not the way for a court to impress upon a reasonable person the appearance of so intense prejudice and gross unfairness as to amount to injurious spite?

E. The court has decided after 11 months of having failed to comply with even the basic case management requirements, that starting on the 13th month it will build up a record over the next nine to ten months during which it will maximize the transactional cost for Dr. Cordero, who at the end of it all will lose anyway

71. The June 25 hearing was noticed by Dr. Cordero to consider his motion for sanctions and compensation as well as his default judgment application. However, the court had its own agenda and did not allow Dr. Cordero to discuss them first. Instead, it came up with the allegation that it could hardly understand Dr. Cordero on speakerphone, that the court reporter also had problems understanding him, and that he would have to come to Rochester to attend hearings in person; that the piecemeal approach and series of motions were not getting the case anywhere and that it had to set a day in October and another in November for all the parties to meet and discuss all claims and motions, and then it would meet with the parties once a month for 7 or 8 months until this matter could be solved.

72. Dr. Cordero protested that such a way of handling this case was not speedy and certainly not inexpensive for him, the only non-local party, who would have to travel every month from as far as New York City, so that it was contrary to Rules 1 F.R.Civ.P. and 1001 F.R.Bkr.P.

73. The court replied that Dr. Cordero had chosen to file cross-claims and now he had to handle this matter that way; that he could have chosen to sue in state court, but instead had sued there, and that all Mr. Pfuntner wanted was to decide who was the owner of the property; that instead Dr. Cordero had claimed $14,000, but the ensuing cost to the court and all the parties could not be justified; that the series of meetings was necessary to start building a record for appeal so that eventually this matter could go to Judge Larimer.

74. The court's statements are mind-boggling by their blatant bias and prejudice as well as disregard of the facts and the law. To begin with, it is just inexcusable that the court, which has been doing this work for over 30 years (A-276), has mismanaged this case for eleven months since September 2002, so that it has:

1. failed to require even initial disclosure under Rule 26(a);
2. failed to order the parties to hold a Rule 26(f) conference;
3. failed to demand a Rule 26(f) report;
4. failed to hold a Rule 16(b) scheduling conference;
5. failed to issue a Rule 16(b) scheduling order;

6. failed to demand compliance with its first discovery order by not requiring Mr. MacKnight as little as to choose one of Dr. Cordero's six proposed dates for the Rochester trip and inspection;
7. failed to insure execution by Mr. Pfuntnner and Mr. MacKnight of its second and last discovery order.

75. It is only now that the court wants to 'start building a record'...what a damning admission that it has not built anything for almost a year! However, it wants to build it at Dr. Cordero's expense by requiring him to travel monthly to Rochester for an unjustifiably long period of seven to eight months after the initial hearings next October and November. This is not so much an admission of incompetence as it is an attempt to further rattle Dr. Cordero and maximize the transactional cost to him in terms of money, time, and effort, just as the court put Dr. Cordero through the extra work of resubmitting the default judgment application (paras. 49 above et seq.) and writing a separate sanctions and compensation motion (paras. 65 above et seq.) only to deny both of them on already known or newly concocted grounds.

1. The court will in fact begin in October, not with the trial, but with its series of hearings, or rather "discrete hearings", whatever those are

76. At the June 25 hearing to the court proposed a slate of dates for the first hearings in October and November and asked the parties to state their choice at a hearing the following week.

77. At the July 2 hearing, Dr. Cordero again objected to the dragged-out series of hearings. The court said that the dates were for choosing the start of trial. Nevertheless, Dr. Cordero withheld his choice in protest.

78. But the court has just issued an order dated July 15 (page 55 below) where there is no longer any mention of a trial date. The dates in October and November are for something that the court designates as “discrete hearings”. Dr. Cordero has been unable so far to find in either the F.R.Bkr.P. or the F.R.Civ.P. any provision for “discrete hearings”, much less an explanation of how they differ from a plain ‘hearing’. Therefore, he has no idea of how to prepare for a “discrete hearing”.

79. Anyway the point is this: There is no trial, just the series of hearings announced by the court at the June 25 hearing, which will be dragged out for seven to eight months after those in October and November. There is every reason to believe that the court will in fact drag out this series that long, for it stated in the order that at the “discrete hearings” it will begin with Plaintiff Pfuntner’s complaint. Thereby it admitted by implication that after more than a year of mismanagement the court has not gotten this case past the opening pleading. Given the totality of circumstances relating to the way the court has treated Dr. Cordero, would an objective observer reasonably fear that by beginning at that elemental stage of the case, the court will certainly have enough time to teach Dr. Cordero a few lessons of what it entails for a non-local pro se to come into its court and question the way it does business with Trustee Gordon or the other locals?

2. The court is so determined to make Dr. Cordero lose that at a hearing it stated that it will require him to prove beyond a reasonable doubt the evidence in support of his motions

80. At the July 2 hearing Dr. Cordero protested the court's denial of his motion for sanctions and compensation and his default judgment application. The court said that if he wanted, he could present his evidence for his motions in October. However, it warned him that he would have to present his evidence properly, that it was not enough to have evidence, but that it also had to be properly presented to meet the burden of proof beyond a reasonable doubt, and that on television sometimes the prosecutor has the evidence but he does not meet the burden of reasonable doubt and he ends losing his case, and that likewise at trial Dr. Cordero would have to be prepared to meet that burden of proof.

81. What an astonishing statement! It was intended to shock Dr. Cordero and it did shock him with the full impact of its warning: It did not matter if he persisted in pursuing his motions, the court would hold the bar so high that the he would be found to have failed to clear it. It was not just a warning; it was the announcement of the court's decision at the end of trial, the one still sine die!

82. But the shock was even greater when Dr. Cordero, a pro se litigant, realized that he could not be required to play the role of a prosecutor, that this is an adversary proceeding and as such a civil matter, not a criminal case. Upon further research and analysis, Dr. Cordero became aware of the fact that to prove something beyond a reasonable doubt is the highest of three standards of proof, and that there are two lower ones applied to civil matters, namely proof by a preponderance of the evidence and the one requiring clear and convincing evidence. Moreover, there is no compelling reason why Dr. Cordero should not be allowed to prove his claims against the other parties by a preponderance of the evidence, the lowest standard. The court's warning was just intended to further rattle Dr. Cordero and intentionally inflict on him even more emotional distress by frustrating him with the awareness of the futility of his effort. There is further evidence supporting this statement.

3. The court latched on to Mr. MacKnight's allegation that he might not have understood Dr. Cordero and that it might be due to his appearances by phone so as to justify its denial of further phone appearances that it nevertheless continues to allow in other cases

83. It was Mr. MacKnight who in a paper dated June 20 alleged that:

The undersigned has been unable to fully understand all Cordero's presentations when he appears by telephone means, though the undersigned believes though is by no means certain that he has understood the substance of Cordero's arguments. [sic] (A-489)

84. From this passage it becomes apparent that the source of Mr. MacKnight's inability to understand does not reside in Dr. Cordero, regardless of how he appears in court. Nonetheless, the court rallied to Mr. MacKnight's side and picked up his objection to make it its own. Requiring Dr. Cordero to appear in person in court will run up his expenses excessively and wreak havoc with his calendar, for the court will require him to be in court at 9:30 a.m. so that he will have to leave NY City on Tuesday and stay at a hotel in order to be in court on time the next morning...and maybe until the following day! (page 60 below)

85. Indeed, the court's objective at the end of this dragged-out process is not to achieve a just and equitable solution to the controversy among the parties. Rather, it already knows that the record will be that of a case so unsatisfactorily decided that it will be appealed; it even knows that the appeal will land in Judge Larimer's hands. Could an objective observer who knew how receptive Judge Larimer was to the court's recommendation to deny Dr. Cordero's default judgment application (paras. 42 above et seq.) reasonably infer from the court's comment that the court was letting Dr. Cordero know that he could be as dissatisfied with its rulings and object as much as he liked, an appeal would again get him nowhere?; and thus, that Dr. Cordero is doomed to lose, they will make sure of it?

4. The court blames Dr. Cordero for being required now to travel to Rochester monthly because he chose to sue and to do so in federal rather than state court, whereby the court disregards the law and the facts and penalizes Dr. Cordero for exercising his rights

86. The court blames Dr. Cordero for having to travel now to Rochester monthly since he chose to sue in federal court. This statement flies in the face of the facts. To begin with, Mr. Palmer had the bankruptcy and liquidation of his company, Premier, dealt with in federal court under federal law. Then Mr. Pfuntner brought his adversary proceeding in federal court under federal law. He sued not only Dr. Cordero, but also Trustee Gordon, a federal appointee, and other parties; (A-21).

87. Contrary to the court's misstatement, Mr. Pfuntner did not only want to determine who owned what in his warehouse. He also sued for administrative and storage fees, and liens. Mr. MacKnight demanded in the Cover Sheet $20,000 and asked in the complaint for indemnification "together with the reason [sic] attorneys fees [sic] and other expense for bringing this proceeding"; (A-27).

88. What is more, no two parties were adverse claimants to the same property in Mr. Pfuntner's warehouse. Far from it, Trustee Gordon and the Bank have stated that they either ask that Dr. Cordero "have access to and repossession of [his] assets" or 'have no objection to his obtaining his belongings' (A-1, 69). Thus, Mr. Pfuntner's claim in interpleader is bogus. All Mr. Pfuntner wanted was to recoup somehow the lease fees that Mr. Palmer owes him. Hence, he sued everybody around, even the Hockey Club, which stated not to have any property in the warehouse at all, but whose name Mr. Pfunter found on a label (A-364).

89. If Dr. Cordero had filed his counter-, cross-, and third-party claims in state court, he would still have had to travel to Rochester, so what difference does it make whether he has to travel to Rochester to attend proceedings in a state court in Rochester or in a federal court in Rochester? If Dr. Cordero had filed his claims in state court, whether in New York City or in Rochester, Mr. Pfunter and the other parties could have removed them to federal court under 28 U.S.C. §1452(a) if only for reasons of judicial economy, assuming that the state court had agreed to exercise jurisdiction at all given that property of the Premier estate was involved, e.g. the storage containers and vehicles, over which the federal court has exclusive jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §1334(e).

5. The court already discounted one of Dr. Cordero's claim against one party and ignores his other claims against the other parties

90. The court asserted that Dr. Cordero sued for $14, 000. This amount is only one item of Dr. Cordero's claim against only one party, namely, Mr. Palmer. The total amount of that claim appears in Dr. Cordero's application for default judgment against that party, to wit, $24,032.08 (A-294). The reason for the court asserting that the claim is only $14,000 is that in its Recommendation of February 4, 2003, for the district court to deny the application, the court cast doubt on the recoverability of “moving, storage, and insurance fees” (para. 38 above; A-307), never mind that to do so it had to indulge in a prejudgment before having the benefit of disclosure, discovery, or a defendant given that Mr. Palmer has not showed up to challenge either the claim or the application.

91. Since that February 4 prejudgment, the court’s prejudice against Dr. Cordero has intensified to the point that now the court has definitely discounted the amount in controversy (page 57 below), although it legally remains valid until disposition of the claim at trial or on appeal. What is more, the court has already dismissed Dr. Cordero’s claims against the other parties, for example, the claim for $100,000 against Trustee Gordon for defamation and the claim for the Trustee’s reckless and negligent liquidation of Premier, claims that the court dismissed but that are on appeal and can be reinstated, unless the court presumes to prejudge the decision of the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. Likewise, the court’s prejudice has already dismissed Dr. Cordero’s claims against Mr. Dworkin, Jefferson Henrietta Associates, Mr. Delano, and the Bank for their fraudulent, reckless, or negligent conduct in connection with Dr. Cordero’s property as well as those for breach of contract, not to mention the request for punitive damages (A-70). And why would the court ignore Dr. Cordero’s claims against Mr. MacKnight’s client, Mr. Pfuntner, for compensation, among other things, for denying his right to access, inspect, remove, and enjoy his property? (A-56)

92. This set of facts begs the question whether a court that reduces a party's claim to a minimal expression even before a trial date is anywhere in the horizon and loses sight altogether of other claims can give the appearance of either impartiality or knowing what it is talking about. Would an objective observer reasonably question whether the court twists the facts because due to incompetence it ignores even the basic elements of a case that has been before it for almost a year or rather because its bias and prejudice against Dr. Cordero prompt it to make any statements, however ill-considered or contrary to the facts, so long as they may harm or rattle Dr. Cordero? Is it not quite illogical for the court, on the one hand, to blame Dr. Cordero for having run up excessive costs for the court and the parties given that his claim is only for $14,000, and on the other hand, to drag out this case for the next 9 to 10 months?

6. The court gave short notice to Dr. Cordero that he had to appear in person, the cost to him notwithstanding, to argue his motion for sanctions for the submission to it of false representations by Mr. MacKnight -who had not bothered even to file a response-, thus causing Dr. Cordero to withdraw the motion

93. There must be no doubt that the court intends to maximize Dr. Cordero's transactional cost of prosecuting this case: On June 5 Mr. MacKnight submitted representations to the court concerning Dr. Cordero's conduct of the inspection;

(A-495). Whereas Mr. MacKnight did not attend, Dr. Cordero did and he knows those representations to be objectively false. After the appropriate request for Mr. MacKnight to correct them and the lapse of the safe haven period under Rule 9011 F.R.Bkr.P., Dr. Cordero moved for sanctions on July 21; (A-498). Mr. MacKnight must have received from the court such an unambiguous signal that he need not be afraid of the court imposing any sanctions requested by Dr. Cordero that again he did not even bother to oppose the motion.

94. Instead, the court had Case Administrator Karen Tacy call Dr. Cordero near noon on Thursday, July 31, to let him know that it had denied his request to appear by phone and that if he did not appear in person, it would deny his July 21 motion; otherwise, he could contact all the parties to try to obtain their consent to its postponement until the hearing in October.

95. The court waited until only 6 days before the return date of August 6 to let him know, though it could have made up its mind and let him know as soon as it received it (para. 59 above). Moreover, it knows, because Dr. Cordero has brought it to its attention, that Mr. MacKnight has ignored almost all his letters and phone calls (A-402 et seq.), and has even challenged the validity of Mr. Pfuntner's written agreement to the May 19 inspection. Dr. Cordero could not risk being left waiting by Mr. MacKnight only to play into his hands given the foreseeable consequences. He withdrew the motion and renoticed it for October; (A-505).

96. To appear in person would have cost Dr. Cordero an enormous amount of money, for he would have had to buy flight and hotel tickets at the highest, spot price and cut to pieces two weekdays on very short notice. And what for? To be in court at 9:30 a.m. for a 15 to 20 minutes hearing. Would an objective person who knew about the court's indifference to the submission of falsehood to it have expected the court to give more importance to imposing sanctions for the sake of the court's integrity than to denying them to make Dr. Cordero's trip for naught in order to keep wearing him down financially and emotionally?

F. Bankruptcy and district court officers to whom Dr. Cordero sent originals of his Redesignation of Items on the Record and Statement of Issues on Appeal neither docketed nor forwarded this paper to the Court of Appeals, thereby creating the risk of the appeal being thrown out for non-compliance with an appeal requirement

97. Dr. Cordero knew that to perfect his appeal to the Court of Appeals he had to comply with Rule 6(b)(2)(B)(i) and (iii) F.R.A.P. by submitting his Redesignation of Items on the Record and Statement of Issues on Appeal. He was also aware of the suspected manipulation of the filing date of his motion to extend time to file the notice of appeal, which so surprisingly prevented him from refiling his notice of appeal to the district court (paras. 15 above et seq.). Therefore, he wanted to make sure of mailing his Redesignation and Statement to the right court. To that end, he phoned both Bankruptcy Case Administrator Karen Tacy and District

Appeals Clerk Margaret (Peggy) Ghysel. Both told him that his original Designation and Statement file submitted in January 2003 (A-ii: 1-152) was back in bankruptcy court; hence, he was supposed to send his Redesignation and Statement to the bankruptcy court, which would combine both for transmission to the district court, upstairs in the same building.

98. But just to be extra safe, Dr. Cordero mailed on May 5 an original of the Redesignation and Statement to each of the court clerks. What is more, he sent one attached to a cover letter to District Clerk Rodney Early; (A-469).
99. It is apposite to note that in the letter to Mr. Early, Dr. Cordero pointed out a mistake, that is, that in the district court's acknowledgement of the notice of appeal to the Court of Appeals, the district court had referred to each of Dr. Cordero's actions against Trustee Gordon and Mr. Palmer as Cordero v. Palmer. Was it by pure accident that the mistake used the name Palmer, who disappeared and cannot be found now, rather than that of Gordon, who can easily be located?
100. The district court transferred the record on May 19 to the Court of Appeals. The latter, in turn, acknowledged the filing of the appeal by letter to Dr. Cordero. When he received it on May 24, imagine his shock when he found out that the Court's docket showed no entry for his Redesignation and Statement! (A-467) Worse still, he checked the bankruptcy and the district court's dockets and neither had entered it or even the letter to District Clerk Early! (A-455, 459, 463)

101. Dr. Cordero scrambled to send a copy of his May 5 Resignation and Statement to Appeals Court Clerk Roseann MacKechnie; (A-468). Even as late as June 2, her Deputy, Mr. Robert Rodriguez, confirmed to Dr. Cordero that the Court had received no Resignation and Statement or docket entry for it from either the bankruptcy or the district court. Dr. Cordero had to call both lower courts to make sure that they would enter this paper on their respective dockets. As to the May 5 letter to District Clerk Early, the Court of Appeals docket carries an entry only as of May 28 that it was received; (A-470).

102. The excuse that these court officers gave as well as their superiors, Bankruptcy Clerk Paul Warren and District Deputy Rachel Bandyh, that they just did not know how to handle a Resignation and Statement, is simply untenable. Dr. Cordero's appeal cannot be the first one ever from those courts to the Court of Appeals; those officers must know that they are supposed to record every event in their cases by entering each in their dockets; and 'certify and send the Resignation and Statement to the circuit clerk,' as required under Rule 6(b)(2)(B). Actually, it was a ridiculous excuse!

103. No reasonable person can believe that these omissions in both courts were merely coincidental accidents. They furthered the same objective of preventing Dr. Cordero from appealing. The officers must have known that the failure to submit the Resignation and Statement would have been imputed to Dr. Cordero and could have caused the Court to strike his appeal. But there is more.

1. Court officers also failed to docket or forward the March 27 orders, which are the main ones appealed from, thus putting at risk the determination of timeliness of Dr. Cordero's appeal to the Court of Appeals

104. Rules 4(a)(1)(A) and 28(a)(C) F.R.A.P. consider jurisdictionally important that the dates of the orders appealed from and the notice of appeal establish the appeal's timeliness. This justifies the question whether the following omissions could have derailed Dr. Cordero's appeal to the Court and, if so, whether they were intentional.

105. Indeed, as of last May 19, the bankruptcy court docket no. 02-2230 for the adversary proceeding Pfuntner v. Gordon et al did not carry an entry for the district court's March 27 denial "in all respects" of Dr. Cordero's motion for reconsideration in Cordero v. Gordon. By contrast, it did carry such an entry for the district court's denial, also of March 27, of Dr. Cordero's motion for reconsideration in Cordero v. Palmer (A-454, entry-69, 453-66).

106. Also on May 19, the district court certified the record on appeal to the Court of Appeals, but it failed to send to the Court copies of either of the March 27 decisions that Dr. Cordero is appealing from and which are necessary to determine his appeal's timeliness. The fact is that the Court's docket for this case as of July 7, 2003 (A-470), did not have entries for copies of either of the March 27 decisions, although it carried entries for the earlier decisions of March 11 and 12 that Dr. Cordero had moved the district court to reconsider. However, Dr. Cordero's notice of appeal to the Court (A-429) made it clear that the March 27 orders were the main orders from which he was appealing (A-211, 350) since it is from them that the timeliness of his notice of appeal would be determined. Dr. Cordero discussed this matter with Deputy Appeals Court Clerk Rodriguez on July 15 and sent him copies of both March 27 ; (A-507)

107. Is this further evidence that bankruptcy and district court officers, in general, enter in their dockets and send to the Court of Appeals just the notices and papers that they want and, in particular, that their failure to enter and send Dr. Cordero's Re-designation of Items and Statement of Issues was intentionally calculated to adversely affect his appeal? If those court officers dare tamper with the record that they must submit to the Court, what will they not pull in their own courts on a black-listed pro se party living hundreds of miles away? This evidence justifies the question whether they manipulated the filing date of Dr. Cordero's motion to extend time to file notice of appeal (paras. 15 above et seq.) so as to bar his appeal from the court's dismissal of his cross-claims against Trustee Gordon. If so, what did they have to gain from it and on whose orders did they do it?

III. Relief requested

108. Dr. Cordero respectfully requests that:

- a) this complaint be reviewed and determined promptly;
- b) he be spared further bias and prejudice at the hands of the court and court officers at the Bankruptcy and District Courts for the Western District, with all that such abuse entails in terms of additional waste of time, effort, and money, as well as even more emotional distress;

c) to that end, and under 28 U.S.C. §1412, which provides as follows;

A district court may transfer a case or proceeding under title 11 to a district court for another district, in the interest of justice or for the convenience of the parties; (emphasis added).

this case be removed to the District Court for the Northern District of New York, held at Albany, which is at about the same distance from all parties;

d) he be granted any other relief that is just and fair.

Respectfully submitted,
under penalty of perjury,

Re: Lodging a complaint under 28 U.S.C. §372(c)(1)

Dear Ms. MacKechnie,

I hereby respectfully submit to you a complaint under 28 U.S.C. §372(c)(1) concerning the Hon. John C. Ninfo, II, United States Bankruptcy Judge at the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of New York. Judge Ninfo has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the court. This is manifest in his mismanagement of a case in which I am a defendant pro se, namely, In re Premier Van Lines, Inc., docket no. 02-2230. The facts speak for themselves, for although this case was filed in September 2002, that is, 11 months ago, Judge Ninfo has:

1. failed to require even initial disclosure under Rule 26(a) F.R.Civ.P.;
2. failed to order the parties to hold a Rule 26(f) conference;
3. failed to demand a Rule 26(f) report;
4. failed to hold a Rule 16(b) F.R.Civ.P. scheduling conference;
5. failed to issue a Rule 16(b) scheduling order;
6. failed to demand compliance with his first discovery order, issued orally at a pre-trial conference held last January 10 at the instigation of an assistant U.S. trustee, by not requiring the plaintiff or his attorney as little as to choose, as required by his order, one of the six dates that, pursuant to the order, I proposed for carrying out his order that I travel to Rochester to conduct an inspection at the plaintiff's warehouse in Avon; and
7. failed to insure execution by the plaintiff and his attorney of its second and last discovery order issued orally at a hearing last April 23, while I was required to travel and did travel to Rochester and then to Avon on May 19 to conduct the inspection.

As a result of Judge Ninfo's inexcusable inaction, this case has made no progress since it was filed. Nor will it make any for a very long time given that a trial date is nowhere in sight. On the contrary, at a hearing on June 25, Judge Ninfo announced that I will have to travel to Rochester a day in October and another in November to attend a hearing with the other parties – all of whom are locals- where we will deal with the motions that I have filed -including an application that I made as far back as last December 26 and that at his instigation I resubmitted on June 7- but that the Judge failed to decide at the hearings on May 21, June 25, and July 2. Then, after the hearings in October and November, I will be required to travel to Rochester for further hearings to be held once a months for seven to eight months!

The confirmation that this case has gone nowhere since it was filed last September comes from Judge Ninfo himself. In his order of July 15 he states that when we meet in October for the first “discrete hearing” –a designation that I have failed to find in the F.R.Bankruptcy P. or the F.R.Civ.P.- we will begin by examining the plaintiff’s complaint, thereby acknowledging that we will not have inched beyond the first pleading by the time the case will be in its 13th month.

Nor will those “discrete hearings” achieve much, for the Judge has not scheduled any discovery or meeting of the parties whatsoever between now and the October meeting. He has left that up to the parties. However, Judge Ninfo knows that the parties cannot meet or conduct discovery on their own without the court’s intervention. The proof of this statement is implicit in the above list, items 6 and 7, which shows that even when Judge Ninfo issued not one, but two discovery orders, the plaintiff disregarded them. Not only that, but the Judge has also spared the plaintiff any sanctions, even after I had complied with his orders to my detriment and requested those sanctions and even when Judge Ninfo himself requested that I write a separate motion for sanctions and submit it to him.

Nor has the Judge imposed any adverse consequences on a party defaulted by his own Clerk of Court or on the trustee that submitted false statements to him. Hence, the Judge has let the local parties know that they have nothing to fear from him if they fail to comply with a discovery request, particularly from me. By contrast, Judge Ninfo has let everybody know, particularly me, that he would impose dire sanctions on me if I failed to comply. Thus, at the April 23 hearing, when the plaintiff wanted to get the inspection at his warehouse over with to be able to clear his warehouse to sell it and remain in sunny Florida care free, the Judge ordered me to travel to Rochester to conduct the inspection within the following four weeks or he would order the property said to belong to me removed at my expense to any other warehouse in Ontario, that is, whether in another county or another country, it did not matter to him.

By now it may have appeared to you too that Judge Ninfo is not impartial. Indeed, underlying the Judge’s inaction is the graver problem of his bias and prejudice against me. Not only he, but also court officers in both the bankruptcy and the district court have revealed their partiality by participating in a series of acts of disregard of facts, rules, and the law aimed at one clear objective: to derail my appeals from decisions that the Judge has taken for the protection of the local parties and to the detriment of my legal rights. There are too many of those acts and they are too precisely targeted on me alone for them to be coincidental. Rather, they form a pattern of intentional and coordinated wrongful activity.

Hence, the even graver issue that needs to be addressed is whether Judge Ninfo’s conduct has been prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of court business because it forms part of a pattern of intentional and coordinated conduct engaged in by both the Judge and other court officers to achieve an unlawful objective for their benefit and that of third parties and consistently to my detriment. The evidence that justifies this query is set forth in detail in the accompanying Statement of Facts, which is followed with a copy of Judge Ninfo’s July 15 order. To expedite the determination of this complaint, I am providing in triplicate them, this letter, as well as an appendix with most items in the record, to which I refer frequently in the Statement.

I trust that you sense the serious implications of this matter and, pursuant to §(c)(2), will promptly transmit this complaint to the chief judge of this circuit, the Hon. John M. Walker, Jr. Meantime, I look forward to receiving your acknowledgment of receipt of this complaint and, thanking you in advance, remain, yours sincerely,

Dr. Richard Cordero

CASE NO. 01-20692

JAMES PFUNTNER,

Plaintiff,

vs.

A.P. NO. 02-2230

KENNETH W. GORDON, as Trustee,
RICHARD CORDERO, ROCHESTER
AMERICANS HOCKEY CLUB, INC.
and M&T BANK,

Defendants.

RICHARD CORDERO,

Third-Party Plaintiff,

vs.

DAVID PALMER, DAVID DWORKIN,
DAVID DELANO, and JEFFERSON
HENRIETTA ASSOCIATES,

Third-party Defendants.

ORDER

WHEREAS, on September 27, 2002, James Pfuntner ("Pfuntner") commenced an adversary proceeding against Kenneth W. Gordon, Esq., as trustee ("Gordon"), Richard Cordero ("Cordero"), Rochester Americans Hockey Club, Inc. ("Rochester Hockey") and M&T Bank ("M&T") (the "Adversary Proceeding"); and

WHEREAS, the Adversary Proceeding sought to have the Court determine: (1) the rights of the various parties, if any, in property (the "Stored Property") which Premier Van Lines, Inc. (the "Debtor") had stored, pursuant to a lease (the "Lease") with Pfuntner at his property at 2140 Sacket Road, Avon, New York ("Sacket Road"); (2) that Pfuntner had no liability, or that he should otherwise be indemnified for any adverse claims to the Stored Property; (3) that the unpaid monthly rental due under the Lease, or reasonable storage charges for the Stored Property, be paid by the Debtor to Pfuntner as Chapter 11 and 7 administrative expenses; (4) that the Court vacate the automatic stay so as to permit Pfuntner to: (a) evict the Debtor and those claiming under the Debtor from Sacket Road in New York State Court; (b) remove the goods left at Sacket Road by the third parties; and (c) collect from those responsible such fair use and occupancy fees as may be determined by a New York State Court; and (5) various other requests for relief; and

WHEREAS, in this non-core proceeding, in November 2002, Cordero filed an Answer and Counterclaim, and Crossclaims against David Palmer ("Palmer"), the principal shareholder of the Debtor, Gordon, Pfuntner, David Dworkin ("Dworkin"), the owner or manager of the Jefferson-Henrietta Warehouse formerly utilized by the Debtor, and David Delano ("Delano"), an officer of M&T Bank, which held a security interest in the personal property assets of the Debtor; and

WHEREAS, on December 23, 2002, this Court granted Gordon's Motion to Dismiss Cordero's Crossclaims against him, which was appealed to and affirmed by the United States District Court for the Western District of New York (the "District Court"), and is now on appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit; and

WHEREAS, on February 4, 2003, for various reasons, including that Cordero had failed to provide satisfactory evidence that would demonstrate that he had incurred damages of $14,000.00, the Bankruptcy Court recommended to the District Court in this non-core matter that the default judgment requested by Cordero not be entered against Palmer; and

WHEREAS, in March 2003, the District Court determined that it was not appropriate to enter a default judgment in favor of Cordero and against Palmer, and referred Cordero's request for a default judgment back to the Bankruptcy Court for a determination of damages; and

WHEREAS, a trip by Cordero to Sacket Road did not result in: (1) a satisfactory inspection of all of the property stored by the Debtor at Sacket Road, including the property of Cordero that was at one time stored with the Debtor; (2) the ability of Cordero to fully determine whether there was any damage to his stored property, and, if there was, whether any of the various entities that had stored his property for him over approximately the last ten years might be responsible for any such damage, and if so, which entities; (3) Cordero's ability to remove his stored property; and (4) this matter being satisfactorily resolved by all of the interested parties; and

WHEREAS, as a result of: (1) Pfuntner and his representatives having failed to take the necessary steps for Cordero to accomplish at least the first three of the items set forth in the preceding paragraph; and (2) the Court advising Cordero that it would entertain a motion for reasonable reimbursement in connection with his trip to Sacket Road, in June 2003, Cordero filed a motion for sanctions and compensation to be paid by Pfuntner and his attorney (the "Sanction Motion"); and

WHEREAS, the Sanction Motion included: (1) a request for compensation for Cordero at the rate of $250.00 per hour for the hours he spent on various matters involved in the Adversary Proceeding, including preparing and researching the Sanction Motion; and (2) the reimbursement of undocumented travel expenses, for a total request of $36,075.00; and

WHEREAS, in connection with the Sanction Motion, Cordero's only justification for requesting compensation for his time at $250.00 per hour is that Pfuntner advised him that this was the amount he paid his attorney, however, there is no proof of that in the record, and there is no other justification in the record for compensating a pro se litigant at that rate, so that the compensation issue and the undocumented expenses will be the subject of inquiry at the upcoming hearings; and

WHEREAS, the Court, in recently reviewing Cordero's renewed motion for a default judgment against Palmer, has focused on the Affidavit of Service of the Crossclaim, which does not indicate that Palmer was properly personally served by mail in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, so that this service issue will be the subject of inquiry at the upcoming hearings; and

WHEREAS, although the Court has allowed Cordero to appear by telephone in connection with a number of pretrial proceedings and motions in this Adversary Proceeding, in the Court's opinion few of those telephone appearances have resulted in an accurate and comprehensive record; and

WHEREAS, the Court believes that setting this Adversary Proceeding down for discrete hearing dates in October and November, when the Court will not have any other matters before it and Cordero can appear in person, will: (1) afford the interested parties a sufficient amount of time to meet and negotiate to determine whether this matter, which should be able to be settled, can be settled without the need for further hearings and proceedings; (2) complete any discovery which they believe may be required; (3) afford Cordero, who has represented himself pro se in this Adversary Proceeding, the opportunity to consult with an attorney: (a) to discuss substantive legal, factual and other relevant matters involved in the Adversary Proceeding; and (b) to advise him how to properly prepare and present evidence at the upcoming hearings should Cordero continue to elect not to be represented by counsel; (4) afford the parties sufficient time to finally complete an inspection of the Stored Property at Sacket Road, and attempt to assess: (a) the ownership of the Property; (b) any damages to the Property; and (c) whether any parties to the Adversary Proceeding are responsible for any such damage; and (5) afford the Court the opportunity to focus more fully on this non-core Adversary Proceeding so that at the discreet hearings it can make the necessary findings, conclusions and rulings, based upon a full and complete record, that will finalize the matter; and, therefore,

For the above reasons, and in order to: (1) ensure that there is a full and complete record created in this Adversary Proceeding; and (2) ensure that the Court can effectively manage the numerous issues that have been raised and assist the parties in concluding the matter, this matter, and all related hearings, motions and proceedings, are set down for a discrete hearing at 9:30 a.m. in the Rochester Courtroom on October 16, 2003, at which time the Court will address the matters chronologically as they have appeared in connection with this Adversary Proceeding, beginning with Pfuntner's Complaint and proceeding forward, and if necessary, continue the hearing at any available times on October 17, 2003, a Chapter 13 day for the Court, and if necessary for further hearings on November 14, 2003 at 9:30 a.m. in the Rochester Courtroom.

SO ORDERED.

DATED: July 15, 2003

HON. JOHN C. NINFO, II
CHIEF U.S. BANKRUPTCY JUDGE
