The second document below represents the "housekeeping" revisions to the Model Code of Judicial Conduct that were approved by the ABA Standing Committee on Ethics and Professional Responsibility pursuant to its grant of authority from the ABA House of Delegates.

The third document below represents the Reporters' Explanation of Changes. These Canon and Rule analyses were drafted by the Commission's Reporters, based on the proceedings and record of the Commission, to inform the ABA House of Delegates about each of the proposed amendments to the Model Code of Judicial Conduct prior to their consideration on February 12, 2007. They have not been adopted as part of the Model Code.

The fourth document below represents two Correlation Tables that were developed to compare the revised 2007 Model Code of Judicial Conduct to the predecessor 1990 Model Code of Judicial Conduct.

The fifth document below is the statement of Mark I. Harrison, chair of the ABA Joint Commission to Evaluate the Model Code of Judicial Conduct.

The sixth document represents an overview of the evaluation process as well as substantive and organizational changes from the 1990 Code.
